Dear Friends,

As we enter the holiday season, the LIFE board of directors and I are busy planning the 24th Annual “Lady in Red” Gala. This incredible, over the moon, Vegas to Palm Beach, night of stars is the perfect way to start your New Year!

Where else can you experience Jay Leno, one of the greatest comedians of all time; the music of The Beatles, one of the greatest rock bands of all time; and one of the greatest meals you’ll ever eat, plus so much more?

You’ll definitely want to put on your black (or red) tie finest and join us at The Breakers, Palm Beach on January 5, 2018 at 6 pm. Don’t be late, because we’ll start the evening off with cocktails and hors d’oeuvres in the exquisite Venetian Ballroom, where we’ll be serenaded by the Palm Beach Symphony. The party continues in the Ponce de Leon Ballroom with a magnificent dinner and performances by Jay Leno and Paul, John, George, and Ringo, or at least their doppelgangers, in the form of The Fab Four, the Beatles tribute band that regularly plays to sold-out audiences in Las Vegas. The evening will be capped by a live auction, a scrumptious dessert, and dancing to the music of the multi-talented Soul Survivors Band.

I would be remiss if I didn’t thank the fearless leadership of the “Over the Moon Vegas to Palm Beach Sizzling Star-Studded Night of Entertainment”, as the gala has been dubbed by those in the know: Grand Honorary Chairmen Janet and J. J. Cafaro; Chairs Dr. Robin Ganzert, Jan and Chip Malley, and Robin and Irv Saltzman; and Co-Chairs Maude Cook, Maria and Kerry Kessel, Frank Orenstein, and Gail Worth. Without their help, we could not bring you this incredible evening, and more importantly, we could not raise funds for this year’s beneficiary.

This year proceeds from the “Lady in Red” will again benefit American Humane’s Lois Pope LIFE Center for Military Affairs, which reunites military dogs with their former handlers and trains service dogs for their therapeutic effects for veterans suffering from PTSD, traumatic brain injuries and other debilitating problems. The Center brings home dogs that served on the front lines in Iraq and Afghanistan and reunites them with their human soldiers as therapy dogs and also provides therapy dogs for the elderly and children in cancer wards. American Humane also cares for dogs, and other animals that have been rescued from hurricanes and other natural disasters.

I wish you all the happiest of holiday seasons and I can’t wait to party with you Over the Moon at the 24th Annual “Lady in Red” Gala.

With Love,

Lois
