American Humane Association
and The Weather Channel
team up with mobiPET to launch first-ever mobile service to send out digital photo
"AMBER Alerts" for pets

Just in time for the tenth anniversary of Hurricane Katrina, American Humane Association, which has saved and sheltered millions of animals over the past 100 years, is teaming up with The Weather Channel and mobiPET™ (www.mobipet.me) to unveil a new, high-tech, visual "AMBER Alert" for missing pets that not only will help reunite lost pets with their owners, but will help raise funds to help animals in need all across the country.

Basic Service Free

mobiPET is the first mobile image and information service designed to increase the chances that families will find their lost dogs or cats. Pet owners can register via computer or mobile device, but must use a smartphone or text-enabled cellphone to submit a lost pet alert. Owners simply upload their pet's image and contact information at www.mobipet.me to register each pet and receive the web app for their phone. If the dog or cat runs off pet owners can text the word "LOST" to mypet@agm.tw. Smartphone owners can either text or open the web app and click on "Lost a Pet." The basic registration is free and mobiPET will donate 10 percent of all premium service subscriptions to American Humane Association when pet parents include "AHA" on the referral line. Basic subscribers' lost pet alert will trigger an immediate email blast to their vet and all registered pet owners and pet finders in a two-mile radius. Premium service subscribers' paid lifetime alert will reach animal shelters and control centers within a 30-mile radius and will protect their pet while traveling. They will also receive a flyer to print, post on social media or email.

Dear Friends of LIFE,

September will be a very exciting and busy month for me! I'll start things off as presenting sponsor for the second annual Countdown 2 Zero (C2Z) Adoption Event. This year's event will take place on Saturday, September 12, 2015 from 10:00 am to 6:00 pm at the Palm Beach County Convention Center.

Lois Pope,
Founder &
President of LIFE

Next I'll travel to California for the taping of American Humane Association's Hero Dog Awards on September 19. This star-studded awards gala at the Beverly Hilton honoring America's Hero Dogs - often ordinary dogs who do extraordinary things, whether it's saving lives on the battlefield, lending sight or hearing to a human companion, or simply providing a tail-wagging to a pet owner at the end of a hard day. As presenting sponsor of this annual event I will work with stars James Denton and Beth Stern to make sure these amazing canines get the recognition they deserve. All of America will have the opportunity to watch the world premier of this event on the Hallmark Channel, Saturday, October 30.

Finally, on a more personal note, I will have a very special opportunity at the end of the month thanks to my dear friend, Congresswoman Lois Frankel. I will travel to Washington, DC for the occasion of Pope Francis' first visit to the United States. This visit is made all the more special because it will be the second opportunity I have had to meet a Pontiff. The first time was on the occasion of my first trip to Europe. I asked my mother what she would like as a gift and she said, "Please bring back rosary beads blessed by the Pope." This was a tall order, but I managed to do it. When Pope John Paul II happened to come over to me at a public gathering in St. Peter's Square outside the Vatican. I simply asked "please bless these beads for my mother." He said "For your mother I will bless these beads."

I wish you all a September full of joy and excitement!

Love,
Lois
