Spotlight Board Member: Holly Dreman

Holly Dreman

LIFE Board Member Holly Dreman was born and raised in the Rockaway Beach area of New York City in the 1950s. After graduating from Skidmore College with a degree in English she moved to Manhattan and began her career, concentrating primarily in M&A, Financial Marketing and PR. One year later she met her husband, David, a money manager and Forbes columnist. They were married 11 years later and had two children, David Jr. ("Ditto") and Meredith.

Currently Holly and David divide their time between Palm Beach and Aspen, where they've had a home since 1992. They enjoy skiing, tennis, boating and collecting Impressionist art. "We've been involved in making contributions through our Foundation to support a variety of causes for social, medical and educational improvements. Its main focus is research in the field of behavioral finance."

"Since we moved to Palm Beach 10 years ago we've felt very fortunate to have found a beautiful landscape of people, nature and so many worthy causes to support, including, of course, LIFE."

Dear Friends,

The great American humorist Henry Wheeler Shaw, who wrote under the name Josh Billings, once said that, "A dog is the only thing on Earth that loves you more than he loves himself."

As the proud owner of quite a few dogs myself, I can certainly attest to this. Indeed, there is an unconditional and unbreakable bond between dogs and their owners.

But, since I also own a few cats, I can say that they, too, absolutely love their human families. In fact, I believe that all pets are just family members with a little extra fur and hair - we could all use a little more hair.

What is important is that there are millions of dogs, cats, and other pets that languish in shelters every year...and far too many wind up euthanized. As you know, it has long been a goal of mine to end the needless euthanasia of healthy, adoptable pets.

That is why I am proud to announce that the Lois Pope LIFE Foundation, Inc. will be the presenting sponsor for the Fifth Annual Countdown 2 Zero (C2Z) Adoption Event taking place on Saturday, September 8, 2018, from 10 am to 4 pm, at a new location: the South Florida Fairgrounds, Expo Center East, in West Palm Beach. I have been the presenting sponsor of this free event since its inception, and, in that time, we have found loving, forever homes for 1,148 deserving pets.

C2Z is Palm Beach County's largest annual pet adoption event. There will be hundreds of adorable animals, including dogs, cats, puppies, kittens, and rabbits seeking new families and homes. Organized by Peggy Adams Animal Rescue League and Palm Beach County Animal Care and Control, C2Z is the collaborative effort of more than 20 local rescue and partner groups dedicated to saving the lives of Palm Beach County animals.

On this one single day, hundreds of homeless animals find their forever homes. Decreasing the pet population at Animal Care and Control means that fewer healthy, adoptable animals will be euthanized because of the lack of space and time to care for them. Together, we can save so many lives of our furry friends in Palm Beach County.

Please stop by the Fifth Annual C2Z Adoption Event on September 8th! Admission and parking are free of cost; the love and companionship you'll receive from your new best friend - priceless!

Love,

Lois
